150 Wassau St N. York March 30th 1868

E. A. Ware Esqr Supt. Education Ga.

Dear Sir Yrs of 19th asking gv'mt of U.S. Primer for poor freedmen in the country in Hand.

We are most happy to respond - wish we could do it tenfold the amount - in a grant of 2,000 Primers.

We cannot doubt you will dispose of them with care & wisdom & we are sure in yr immense State vast need exists for such elementary helps.

If you could secure from the [[?]] or yr fellow laborers, - if yr own time will not allow correspondense, - some letters of the need & usefulness of such aid in yr state - this would help as to secure means to aid you again or the still more destitute fields.

Of such use are these letters to us when pointed & terse & fast-full -that you will pardon us for earnestly requesting them.

Very Respectfully Ys for the Society
