Pine Bluff Ark.

Jan. 8th 1869

Mr. Colby

Dear Sir

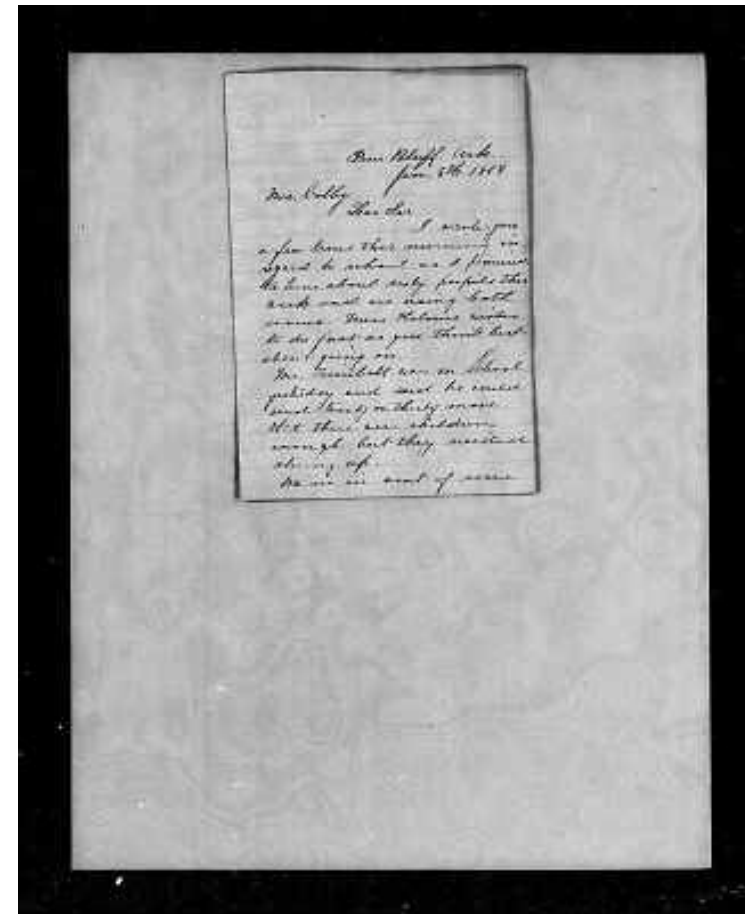

I write you a few lines this morning in regard to school as I promised.

We have about sixty pupils this week and are using both rooms. Miss

Holmes wishes to do just as you think best about going on.

Mr. Trimbull was in school yesterday and said he could send twenty or thirty more that there were children enough but they needed stirring up.

We are in want of some
