

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

Deed of sale for an enslaved man named Cane

Extracted on Apr-19-2024 07:14:15

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the National Museum of African American History and Culture as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the National Museum of African American History and Culture website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact National Museum of African American History and Culture or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the National Museum of African American History and Culture. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

And the said vendor moreover binds himself his heirs and legal Representatives to forever warrant and defend the title of the Property herein conveyed.

The State of Virginia
 Council of State
 Be it remembered, that on the 21st day of September 18th 1796 the following Act of Assembly passed the said
 House was read & passed
 That whereas the said Council of State doth not deem it expedient that any bill should be introduced into the House of Delegates for the purpose of amending the said Act of Assembly in relation to the said Council of State
 until the next session of the said House of Delegates
 doth pass an Act to that effect
 Be it enacted by the House of Delegates in General Assembly assembled That the said Council of State shall not introduce any bill
 for the purpose of amending the said Act of Assembly
 in relation to the said Council of State
 until the next session of the said House of Delegates
 doth pass an Act to that effect
 Approved the 21st day of September 1796
 John C. Hunter
 Speaker of the House of Delegates 1796

Deed of sale for an enslaved man named Cane
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers Extracted Apr-19-2024 07:14:15

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian