Dear Mr. Elmiger:

I might be going to Paris a couple of weeks at the beginning of the second week of March, that is around the 10, or 11, and am wondering whether I can count upon a room at your hotel as usual.

I am sorry to be so indefinite as regards dates at this present writing, but circumstances do not allow me to be more precise.

As soon as I will have heard from you in the affirmative I hope, I shall of course cable you giving exact dates.

This naturally does not interfere nor replace the later reservations I have with you, that is from May 15th to July 3rd., and about which I have your confirmation.

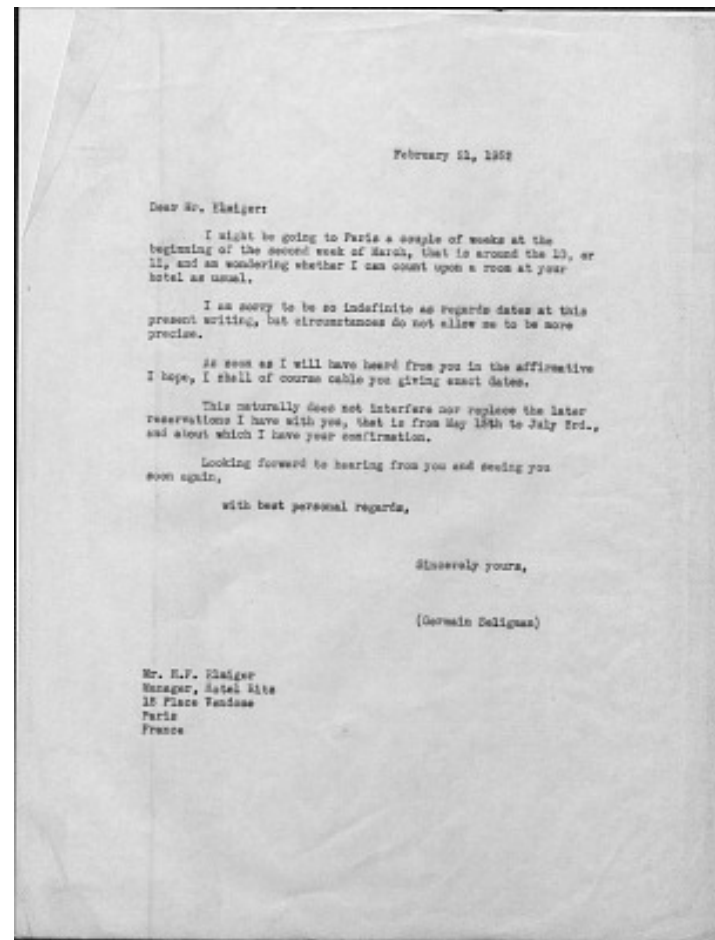

Looking forward to hearing from you and seeing you soon again,

With best personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

(Germain Seligman)

Mr. H.F. Elmiger
