blow. By what I can see poor Peter or any other freedman stands small chance. I could with any jury clear this man as having acted in self defence only and that after his house had been entered by an armed force they not being content but following him outside. I trust you will send me written instructions how to at relative to this and other cases about to brought before this court.
I have the honor to be Very Respectfully
Your obd't Servt.
