December 2nd, 1925.

Dear Friends:

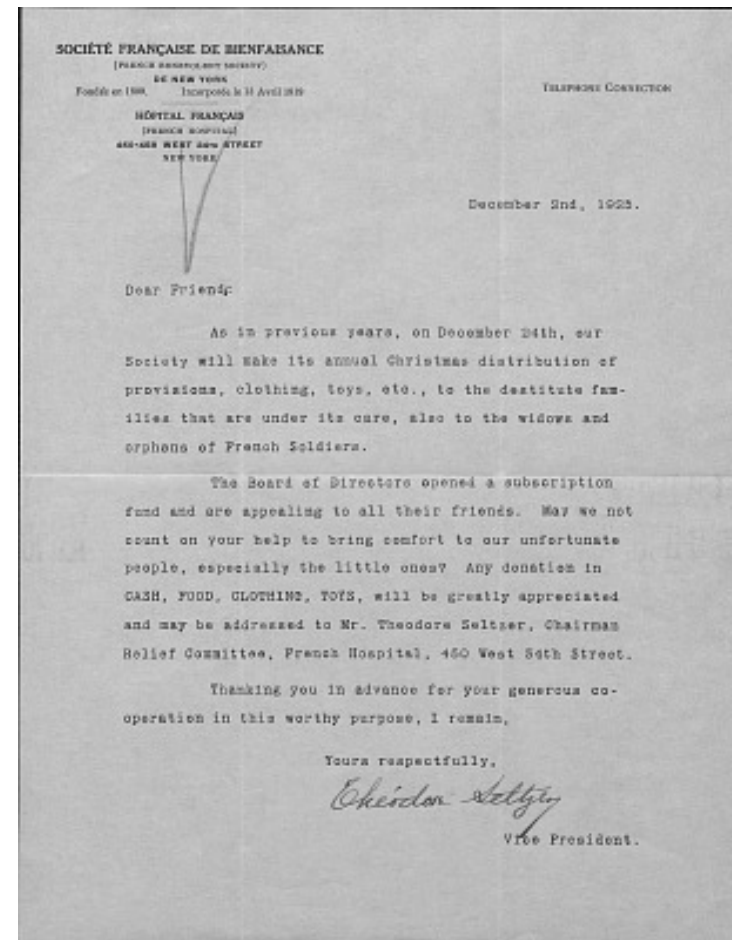

As in previous years, on December 24th, our Society will make its annual Christmas distribution of provisions, clothing, toys, etc., to the destitute families that are under its care, also to the widows and orphans of French Soldiers.

The Board of Directors opened a subscription fund and are appealing to all their friends. May we not count on your help to bring comfort to our unfortunate people, especially the little ones? Any donation in CASH, FOOD, CLOTHING, TOYS, will be greatly appreciated and may be addressed to Mr. Theodore Seltzer, Chairman Relief Committee, French Hospital, 450 West 34th Street.

Thanking you in advance for your generous cooperation in this worthy purpose, I remain,
Yours respectfully,

[[signature]]

Vice President.
