Network of such facilities. I congratulate New York Airways on its pioneering achievements during the first four years of its operations and wish it the best of luck and success in its future operations.

I know that New York Airways' helicopters operating from Port Authority heliports will bring New York the finest, most modern, and most efficient short haul air transportation available anywhere in the world. I pledge you all possible support of the City government toward that end.

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
