Smithsonian Institution
Anacostia Community Museum Archives

Letter to Bobbie from Blanche, November 17, 1944

Extracted on Mar-28-2024 12:15:53

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Anacostia Community Museum Archives as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Anacostia Community Museum Archives website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Anacostia Community Museum Archives or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Anacostia Community Museum Archives.
See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

[[left]]

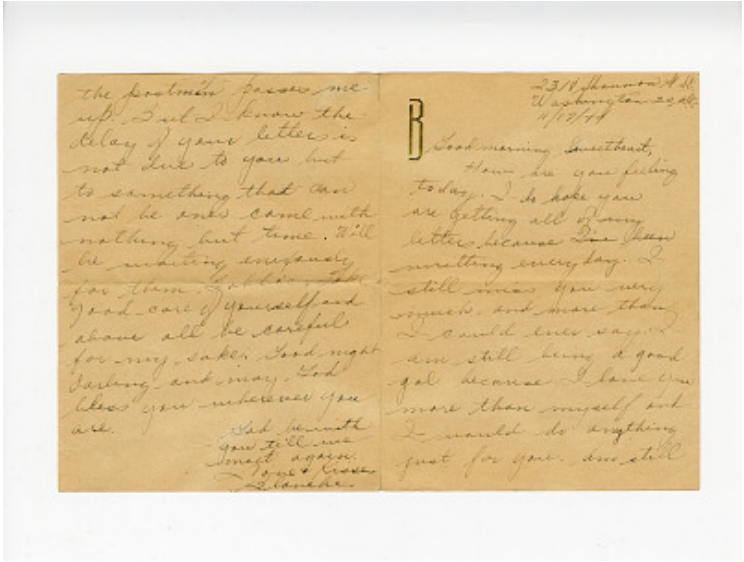

the postmen passes me up. But I know the delay of your letters is not due to you but to something that can not be ones come with nothing but time. Will be waiting anixously for them. Bobbie take good care of yourself and above all be careful for my sake. Good night darling and may God bless you wherever you are.

God be with you till we meet again.
Love & Kisses
Blanche

[[right]]
2318 Shannon Pl., S.E.
Washington 20, D.C.
11/17/44

B

Good morning sweetheart,
How are you feeling today. I do hope you are getting all of my letters because I've been writing every day. I still miss you very much - and more than I could ever say. I am still being a good gal because I love you more than myself and I would do anything just for you. am still

Letter to Bobbie from Blanche, November 17, 1944
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Mar-28-2024 12:15:53

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities.Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!
The Transcription Center: https://transcription.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter
On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian
Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian
On Twitter: @smithsonian