A charm and mystery, ever fascinating, that cannot be described, lures the Art Lover - The Collector of Antiques - The Gift Seeker - The Scientist - The Student and the Traveler to Grace Nicholson's - A Famous and Fascinating Shop with less of the commercial spirit than any other in the West. The visitors welcome is always genuine.

You will cherish the memory of your visit and delight in telling your friends about the charm of this house full of treasures and suggestions, so unlike any other in America. There is a definite individuality to each of the twelve Salesrooms, showing the true decorative value of the articles exhibited. It is safe to claim that there is no place in Pasadena, or in California, where more interest centers - and is little wonder that every visitor pronounces Miss Nicholson's the most Notable, Beautiful and Unique Shop they ever visited.

My select and complete assortment of old and new Jewelry, bears the impress of individual thought, distinctive design and refined hand workmanship. Especially interesting is the large line of Jade Jewelry with oriental mountings.

The great Museums, Art Schools and private collectors of the East have drawn from Grace Nicholson's Indian, Korean, Chinese, South Sea and Philippine Collections, thousands of important specimens as additions to their collections.

Opportunity is offered Miss Nicholson from time to time, to secure important private collections of Old English, French, Dutch and American Silver; Colonial Furnishings and other Antiques that are offered each season to my Collectors at Special Prices. If you have a Hobby, consult this Shop.
