

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

The Woman's Building Records, Feminist Studio Workshop, Publicity, 1975-1981

Extracted on Apr-16-2024 03:09:56

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives of American Art as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives of American Art website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives of American Art or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives of American Art. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

to define and create women's culture, to teach and learn skills in a supportive, feminist environment.

The Woman's Building offers all this and more to the women here. Such as galleries which exhibit women's art. Readings and lectures by Charlotte Bunch, Mary Daly, Adrienne Rich. Original feminist theater. Women's music.

An enthusiastic and committed staff keep "the Building" alive and hopping. Everything that happens at the Woman's Building enriches and expands your experience in the FSW. Offering inspiration and a sense of "family" that extends beyond the Woman's Building, Los Angeles, into the lives of women all over the world.

LIVING ON THE FAULT LINE

It's true. Living in LA can be overwhelming. Nerve wracking. Exciting. Stimulating. The opposite and the same as everything you've seen on TV, read about, heard about, wondered.

The freeways are an adventure in driving skill and patience. The beaches dotted with palm trees and surfers. And, Hollywood is, after all, "HOLLYWOOD".

So, the FSW has a full time staff person whose only purpose is to assist you with living in Los Angeles and participating in the FSW. She can help you find a job, housing and other services you may need.

Housing is available near the Woman's Building. Rentals start at about $135 a month for singles and one bedroom apartments. Studio

The Woman's Building Records, Feminist Studio Workshop, Publicity, 1975-1981

Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Apr-16-2024 03:09:56

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian