

Smithsonian Institution

Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives

Lee Ya-Ching Papers - Newspaper clippings, 1943

Extracted on Mar-28-2024 04:24:26

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

THE EVENING STAR, WASHINGTON D. C., THURSDAY, FEB

[[image]]
MISS LEE YA CHING
-Star Staff Photo

Six Pairs of Shoes Asked for Odd Feet
By the Associated Press.

DALLAS, Tex.-She ought to get six pairs of shoes a year instead of three, the woman told the rationing board.

She wears a No. 5 shoe on one foot, and a No. 7 on the other-so three pairs would really be only one and a half, she explained.

The puzzle is enroute to Washington.

China's No. 1 Aviatrice Arrives in Capital

Miss Lee Ya-Ching Will Address Meeting Tonight

China's No. 1 aviatrice, Miss Lee Ya-ching, arrived in Washington yesterday a few hours before China's No. 1 woman, Mme. Chiang.

Miss Lee, who has flown 50,000 miles for United China Relief and its predecessor relief organizations, came to Washington to address a meeting tonight sponsored by the Washington Committee of UCR.

Wearing a soft blue wool lace scarf around her head and a little black suit, the aviatrice talked to newspaper reporters at the United War Relief headquarters, 1218 Connecticut avenue. This month is being celebrated at headquarters as China month. Miss Lee's talk and the preview tonight of the United States Army film "We Fly for China" are part of the month's Chinese activities.

Miss Lee was the first woman of any nationality to receive a pilot license in Geneva, Switzerland, and was the first Chinese woman to obtain a license from her own government.

In 1938, one year after the outbreak of hostilities between her country and Japan, Miss Lee began her flights across America, to cities large and small, to enlist American aid to China. UCR officials say that she raised thousands of dollars for the Chinese.

Frank Ray will be another speaker at the meeting. His subject will be "Recent Travels in Wartime China." Gifford Pinchot, former Governor of Pennsylvania, will preside at the meeting in the auditorium of the Archives Building, Pennsylvania avenue and Seventh street N.W.

Former Czar Ferdinand In Sofia as Hitler Aide

by the Associated Press

LONDON, Feb. 18 - The Algiers radio reported yesterday that former Czar Ferdinand of Bulgaria has arrived in Sofia as Hitler's envoy assigned to the task of getting additional Bulgarian contingents to help Germany.

Bulgarian newspapers were forbidden to mention his presence, the broadcast recorded by the Associated Press said.

The 81-year-old former Czar has been living at Coburg, Germany. He abdicated in 1918 when Bulgaria, an ally of the Central powers in the World War, surrendered to the Allies.

Feb. 18, 1943

THE EVENING STAR, WASHINGTON, D. C., THURSDAY, FEB

China's No. 1 Aviatrice Arrives in Capital

Miss Lee Ya-ching Will Address Meeting Tonight

China's No. 1 aviatrice, Miss Lee Ya-ching, arrived in Washington yesterday a few hours before China's No. 1 woman, Mme. Chiang. Miss Lee, who has flown 50,000 miles for United China Relief and its predecessor relief organizations, came to Washington to address a meeting tonight sponsored by the Washington Committee of UCR.

Wearing a soft blue wool lace scarf around her head and a little black suit, the aviatrice talked to newspaper reporters at the United War Relief headquarters, 1218 Connecticut avenue. This month is being celebrated at headquarters as China month. Miss Lee's talk and the preview tonight of the United States Army film "We Fly for China" are part of the month's Chinese activities.

Miss Lee was the first woman of any nationality to receive a pilot license in Geneva, Switzerland, and was the first Chinese woman to obtain a license from her own government.

In 1938, one year after the outbreak of hostilities between her country and Japan, Miss Lee began her flights across America, to cities large and small, to enlist American aid to China. UCR officials say that she raised thousands of dollars for the Chinese.

Frank Ray will be another speaker at the meeting. His subject will be "Recent Travels in Wartime China." Gifford Pinchot, former Governor of Pennsylvania, will preside at the meeting in the auditorium of the Archives Building, Pennsylvania avenue and Seventh street N.W.

Former Czar Ferdinand In Sofia as Hitler Aide

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—The Algiers radio reported yesterday that former Czar Ferdinand of Bulgaria has arrived in Sofia as Hitler's envoy assigned to the task of getting additional Bulgarian contingents to help Germany.

Bulgarian newspapers were forbidden to mention his presence, the broadcast recorded by the Associated Press said.

The 81-year-old former Czar has been living at Coburg, Germany. He abdicated in 1918 when Bulgaria, an ally of the Central powers in the World War, surrendered to the Allies.

Sale of Furniture

There is a big demand for used furniture. Now is the time to take note cash that which you are not using. As "As" in The Star with full description and price will sell it.

MISS LEE YA CHING.
—Star Staff Photo.

Six Pairs of Shoes Asked for Odd Feet

By the Associated Press.

DALLAS, Tex.—She ought to get six pairs of shoes a year instead of three, the woman told the rationing board.

She wears a No. 5 shoe on one foot, and a No. 7 on the other—so three pairs would really be only one and a half, she explained.

The puzzle is enroute to Washington.

Sale of Furniture

There is a big demand for used furniture. Now is the time to turn into cash that which you are not using. An "Ad" in The Star with full description and price will sell it.

Lee Ya-Ching Papers - Newspaper clippings, 1943
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Mar-28-2024 04:24:26

Smithsonian Institution

Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum Archives

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian