THE QUITTER
 ROBERT W. SERVICE

When you're lost in the wilds

And you're scared as a child,
And death looks you bang in the eye,
And you're sore as a boil,
It's according to Hoyle
To cock your revolver and die.
But the code of a man,
Says fight all you can,
And self dissolution is barred,
In hunger and woe, It's dead easy to blow,
It's the Hell-served-for-breakfast that's hard.

You're sick of the game,
Well, well that's a shame,
You're brave, you're young, and you're bright,
You had a raw deal, I know, but don't squeal,
Buck up, do your damdest and fight.
It's the plugging away that will win you the day
So don't be a piker, old pard,
Just call on your grit, it's dead easy to quit,
It's the holding your chin up that's hard.

It's easy to cry you're beaten, and die,
It's easy to crawfish and crawl,
But to fight and to fight, when hopes out of sight,
Ah, that's the best game of them all.
And though you come out of each gruelling bout
All broken and beaten and scarred,
Just have one more try
It's dead easy to die,
It's the keeping on living that's hard.
