Art Observation

Mel Casas, chairman of art, advertising art and architecture department, Jan Tips and Reginald Rowe, a painting instructor at the San Antonio Art Institute, contemplate the work of Casas. The one-man show will be on exhibit through Dec. 2 at Koehler Cultural Center, 310 W. Ashby Place. Casas' work is of Southwest-Mexican images.

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
