Dear Jenny and Clem—

Here we are, winding up another summer in Princeton, (me in bobby-socks). Are you still in Saskat.? We thought maybe you'd be up here for a couple of days. It's been frightfully indian summer.

It's been a strange summer, difficult in some ways, but it went quickly, and we did quite a lot of painting despite problems; mostly about the custody of Jeannie & Cise, who are now back with Betty for winters; & they're very happy. I hope you're both well and had a pleasant summer.

I'll call you towards the end of the month.
Best from Bob & me,
Helen. [[note]] Frankenthaler [[/note]]
