

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

Celebrating 175: Dorothea Dreier, Letters, Dreier, H. Edward (brother), circa 1889-1897, cont'd

Extracted on Mar-29-2024 07:00:24

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives of American Art as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives of American Art website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives of American Art or transcribe@si.edu

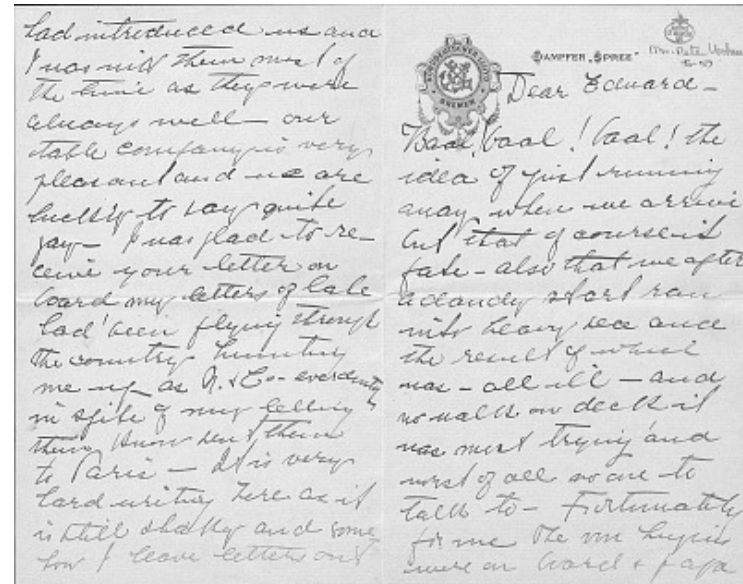

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives of American Art. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

[[stamp]] ARCHIVES OF AMERICAN ART [[/stamp]]
Mrs. Peter Voohrees
5-59

DAMPFER "SPREE"

[[seal]] * NORDDEUTSCHER LLOYD * BREMEN [[/seal]]

Baal! baal! baal! the idea of just running away when we arrive but that of course is fate - also that we after a dandy start ran into heavy seas and the result of which was - all ill - and no walk on deck it was most trying and worst of all no one to talk to - Fortunately for me the von Leyries were on board & papa had introduced us and I was with them most of the time as they were always well - our table company is very pleasant and we are lucky to say quite gay - I was glad to receive your letter on board my letters of late had been flying through the country hunting me up - as N. & Co. - everdenty in spite of my letting them know send them to Paris - It is very hard writing here as it is still shaky and some how I leave letters out

Celebrating 175: Dorothea Dreier, Letters, Dreier, H. Edward (brother), circa 1889-1897, cont'd
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Mar-29-2024 07:00:24

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian