some nights ago, and that didn't come off -

I am dining at Smitz's with the James', & I expect if there are more, surely he will swarm up to the roof -

We all went to the ~~[[?]]~~ with Carl Fritz, & I saw ~~[[?]]~~ Ethel there, who said it was a crazy night - Arthur Pound and ~~[[?]]~~ ~~[[?]]~~ ~~[[?]]~~ Mr Waters were both replaced by understudies -

[[note]] Ra[[?]] was first rate [[/note]]

the ~~[[illegible?]]~~ ~~[[illegible?]]~~ was a Presbyterian clergyman, and Mr Waters a sort of Carmen with arms akimbo - however we all enjoyed the music - and I appreciated the second act more than the first time - However I think I still like the final act best - and to me the lighthouse is the gem of it all - It would be an awful

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
