There are two or three pleasant people on board, the [[?]]'s and Lady Colebrook! who seems to be at a very loose end, and emigrating for an indefinite time -

Your books have been a great blessing - I am deep in the "Wings of the Dove" - and obligated to have read the mysterious

Great Good Place again - Please let me know if anything came of the meeting between May & Mr James.

My foot is slowly improving & I can now wear a boot -

I shall be awfully anxious to know how bad these Raids have been, & if they have been anywhere near you -

Yours ever
J. S. Sargent
