

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

Charlene Hodges Byrd Collection, Series 2, Sub-series 2 Grace E. Shimm Cummings: General Correspondence, 1875-1909

Extracted on Apr-17-2024 08:46:06

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the National Museum of African American History and Culture as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the National Museum of African American History and Culture website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact National Museum of African American History and Culture or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the National Museum of African American History and Culture. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

Washington Aug 6" 75
Dear Daughter
Gracie
I received your kind letter and was much pleased to learn that you are well and having a very pleasant time but was sorry to hear about the little child that was so badly injured by the cars which must have mared the pleasure of your trip some what but let us hope. The little one will get over it and live long to lend happiness and comfort to the declining years of his parents. Possibly I may come to bring you home but think by that time the goosberries will be gone.
Cousin Allan must be very war-like to shoot rats in that loose manner.
Aunt Lizzie has not gone to Maryland

Washington Aug 6" 75
Dear Daughter
Gracie
I received your
kind letter and was much pleased
to learn that you are well and
having a very pleasant time but
was sorry to hear about the little child
that was so badly injured by the
cars which must have mared the
pleasure of your trip some what
but let us hope. The little one will get
over it and live long to lend happiness and comfort to the declining years of its parents. Possibly I may come to bring you home but think by that time the goosberries will be gone. Cousin Allan must be very warlike to shoot rats in that loose manner. Aunt Lizzie has not gone to Maryland

Charlene Hodges Byrd Collection, Series 2, Sub-series 2 Grace E. Shimm Cummings: General Correspondence, 1875-1909
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers Extracted Apr-17-2024 08:46:06

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian