Dear Miss Mongan:

Besides the great pleasure we have in owning privately your wonderful catalogues on the drawings of the Fogg Art Museum, we all feel that we must have a copy for our office library, and Mr. Germain Séligmann has asked me to send you the enclosed order for one. Although our quarters are extremely small, as you know, we shall certainly find a very good place for the volumes.

Hoping to receive them very shortly, and with renewed congratulations,

Believe me to be,

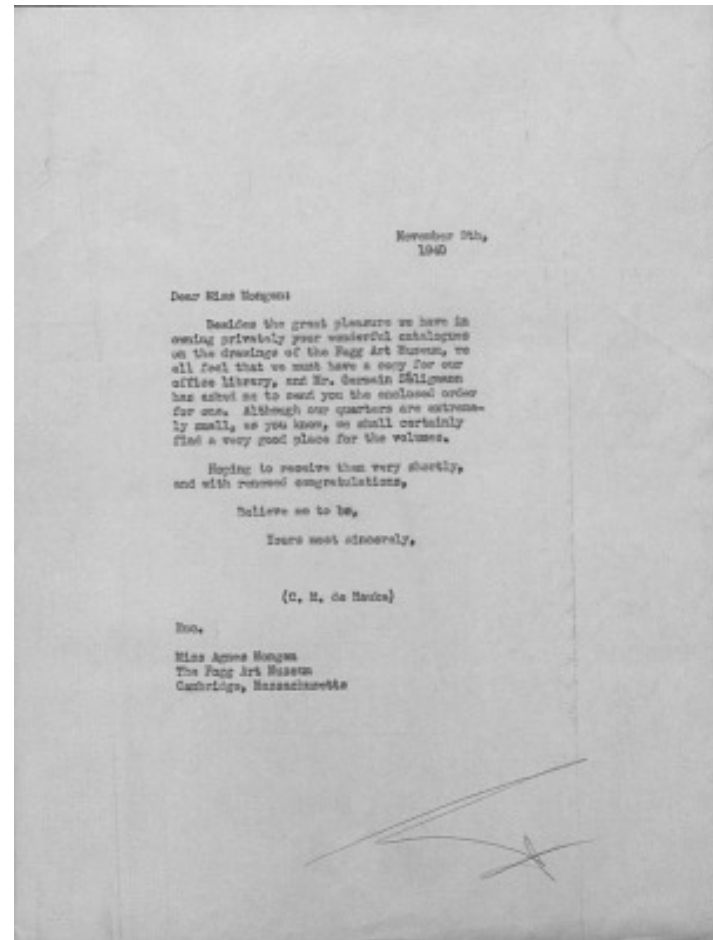

Yours most sincerely,

(C. M. de Hauke)
