
Extracted on Sep-01-2022 08:16:37

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives of American Art as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives of American Art website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives of American Art or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives of American Art. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.
January 4, 1966

Dear Harold:

What has become of you? For I was under the impression that you intended coming to New York towards the end of December. I do hope that whatever the reasons were for postponing your visit it was not due to ill health and a line from you reassuring me would be much appreciated.

About three months ago, you will recall, at the time I shipped the LARGILLIÈRE drawing of the Ormesson Children, I forwarded also an extensive pamphlet relating to it. As I assume that this documentation is no longer of use to you, may I ask you to be good enough to return it at your leisure.

You will be interested and glad to learn that my exhibition of MASTER DRAWINGS was quite successful. I am sorry indeed that you did not see it, for from the people whose opinion means much to me it was altogether a very attractive one.

Do let me hear from you, and with kindest thoughts, & Happy New Year.

Yours,

Germain Seligman

Dr. Harold Joachim
Curator of Prints and Drawings
The Art Institute of Chicago
Michigan Avenue at Adams Street
Chicago, Illinois 60603

GS

Extracted Sep-01-2022 08:16:37
The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world’s largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!
The Transcription Center: https://transcription.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter
On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian
Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian
On Twitter: @smithsonian