January 9, 1974

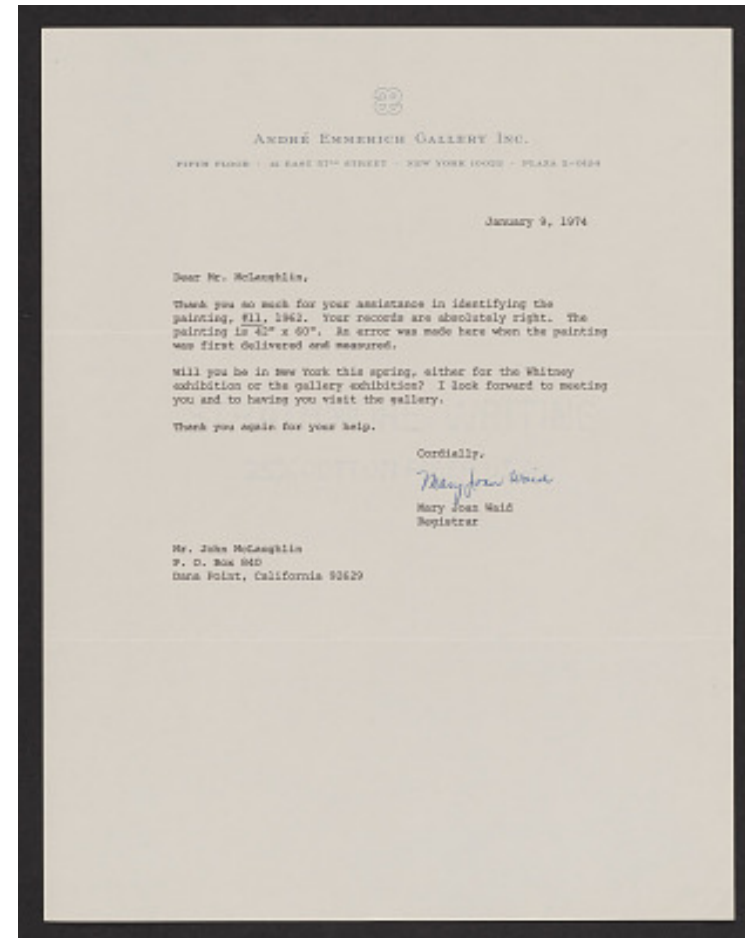

Dear Mr. McLaughlin,
Thank you so much in your assistance in identifying the painting, #11, 1962. Your records are absolutely right. The painting is 42" x 60". An error was made here when the painting was first delivered and measured.

Will you be in New York this spring, either for the Whitney exhibition or the gallery exhibition? I look forward to meeting you and to having you visit the gallery.

Thank you again for your help.

Cordially,
Mary Joan Waid

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
