Washington March 19th 1870.

Respectfully returned to Brevet Major General O.O. Howard, Commissioner Freedmens Bureau, with the information that the telegraph operator at the office of the War Department reports that arrangements have been made by the Western Union Telegraph Company to receive at; and send from the Union office of the Company, or from the Branch office, located in Post Office Building, telegrams addressed to or from you and the officers of your Bureau, instead of at this office as has been done heretofore.

E D Townsend
Adjutant General.
