Dear Hedda

Now I'm kind of established here and it seems it'll take a long time until I'll be sent to my final destination - And in the meantime I'll have to do something here and it's very interesting.

I am living in a big hotel, have a big room, as comfortable as possible, in this climat and rather good meals many times a day. I have a personal servant bring the whole day with the polishing of my shoes and helping me to dress and undress my fancy ~~wit~~ white uniform with ~~sorth~~ shorts. It's hot like hell here even during the night and it'll take some time to get accustomed again with this climat, worst that the one I had in Central America.

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
