Dear Mr Barrie -

Thank you for your kind note of June 28th I have rather been waiting to send you a photo of a picture for which Mr Hearty gave me \[\text{strike-through}\] when \[\text{strike-through}\] an order when he was here a little over 2 yrs ago. I have been rather long in finishing it not because I have not finished it because I had been trying to make it better & I believe it is better than it has ever been. \[\text{strike-through}\] I thought \[\text{strike-through}\] I have had it photographed & have been waiting for some new proofs, but \[\text{strike-through}\] to date \[\text{strike-through}\] to send you one

Finally I have concluded to send you it later \[\text{strike-through}\] when it \[\text{strike-through}\] if it should ever arrive -

Please follow the \[\text{strike-through}\] policy of accepting any reasonable offer until times improve. The exchange value of the $ is a great hardship to us who live over here. Let us hope it will accomplish \[\text{strike-through}\] for \[\text{strike-through}\] all that it was intended to do for you all who live in the US. - but 15 fcs for a dollar instead of 25 fcs. is a real disaster for \[\text{strike-through}\] one \[\text{strike-through}\] us

I shall send you early in the Fall some smaller things I am working up, but if in the interim \[\text{interim}\] during the space of time any thing could be sold I should be very glad.

I have been pained to hear of poor Noble's death

Thanking you for your kind responce

Believe me
Vy Sincerely

interim
