Celebrating 175: Correspondence, Henri, Robert, 1908-1939, undated

Extracted on Jul-02-2022 03:35:39

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives of American Art as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives of American Art website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives of American Art or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives of American Art. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.
Mrs Mary Fauton Roberts
The Craftsman

My Dear Mrs Roberts

I received your letter with MSS enclosed yesterday but waited to ans for the arrival of the craftsman the first copy of which Mrs Henri brought home last night (this morning the package of four you had sent came in the mail) W is [[rather?]] for me to do the thanking, and I do thank you for your idea of having me express through the craftsman the principles I have been making such a long and up hill fight for.

The article will do away with many false impressions that have gone abroad through misquotations. I hope it may be read everywhere. I am glad Mr Stickley liked the "Young woman in Black" well enough to want it in the article for I think it a valuable part of the argument. Waiving a few false values, the "Eva green" is most satisfactory - were I to run across it accidentally I shd surely be caught by its life and its right sort of humor.
The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!
The Transcription Center: https://transcription.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter
On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian
Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian
On Twitter: @smithsonian