~~[[strikethrough]]~~ It seems to me like asking for an instruction sheet for a do-it-yourself kit. ~~[[/strikethrough]]~~

We know that the five senses are standard equipment but they do not account for the fact that Flagstad sings like one of the angels and another singer having studied with a better teacher and being of greater mentality may be in the neighborhood of zero. It is that elusive ingredient that I am unable to define.

A photograph of a handwritten letter on a single sheet of paper. The handwriting is in cursive and appears to be from the mid-20th century. The text is written in dark ink. The paper is slightly aged and has a vertical crease down the middle. The letter is framed by a dark border.

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
