Dearest Flora,

I miss you so much. Of course I want you to have a good time in England, but I want you to come back soon. I worked till three yesterday & today, took a walk, went to the Louvre and to the marble cutters. The figures are advancing very quickly now. There are nine men working on them.

Love to every one & heaps for yourself
Mama

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
