I feel passed on from parents; to childhood teachers; to the immensity of impact of you & Win on my adult life (in personal riches plus enabling me to enjoy a work that frees me, needs me, allows independence, that comforts); and now [[such? are? left?]]. Somehow this is not all entirely unfamiliar; Somehow we've met before on a deeper level. I have sat at the feet of teachers before Geraldine. I am in Asia now thru you but I suspect not by chance- its a coming full circle- it begins to flow: sweetly yet many bumps to come yet it merges. This immense journey in search of myself; longing to be in rythm with all life: All ME.

I am an old baby. Everything is always so intense like supernovas constantly ex & imploding. Now I see that the window is dirty. I will begin & persevere. I want to "see".

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
