Messrs. Y. Fujita & Company,
#38 West 23rd Street,
New York City.

Gentlemen:-

I have the kind letter of your Mr. Getz, dated January 31st, and note the same fully.

I am extremely sorry that the beautiful piece of green Raku Pottery should have been ruined through improper packing, and I appreciate the very prompt and generous way in which you propose to treat the matter.

Of course, the piece is ruined, so far as I concerned, but I am quite sure that if you can repair it nicely, you will be able to obtain quite a fair price for it, so I shall return the broken bowl to you by American Express, tomorrow, charges prepaid.

For the Old Izumo Tea Bowl, #494, shipped along with the green Raku Dish, I am enclosing herewith check on New York for $18.00 in settlement thereof. Will you be good enough to The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
