on ground near barrels. Thurlow absent.
May 30. Home all day. Beautiful weather. Restful day.
May 31. Here all day. I become restless went to Corinthian Yacht Club to inspect boats. Evening went to graduating exercises ^ (George's school.)^ at McKenzie's school. at Dobb's Ferry. Function held in chapel. Old pictures there present the past - nothing the present or the future. This is the bane of this class of pedagogues.

All recitations or declarations referred to war heroes. No wonder George is little in sympathy with his school.
June 1. 1913 (Sunday) Beautiful day.
Mandels here on visit with tyrolean hat and little brush on it. Drove them home then fetched Professor Alexander

Smith and his wife for lunch took them home at 6 P.M.

June 2 Another beautiful day. Booked sales this month were $30,000. Evening went to fetch George at Middlebrook's with Nina & Celine then went all to Longe Vue for refreshments then drove home.

June 3. Rossi leaves to day for Europe to study progress of Bakelite Gesellschaft and to study button industry. Fine weather. Spent most of day reading. Gothelf shows some further samples of gray buttons Feel disinterested in my work and bored.

June 4. All went with car at 8 A.M to ~~see Mr.~~ Hasslach off on Oceanic ~~Creevey~~, Dubois and Foersterling at Directors meeting. Announced deliveries for May were $34000 our highest record. Harold van der Linde, his lawyer Campbell and his manager Mills
