Smithsonian Institution
Archives of American Gardens

Burpee Seed Contest, 1924 - Box 271, Folder 2

Extracted on Mar-28-2024 07:24:29

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

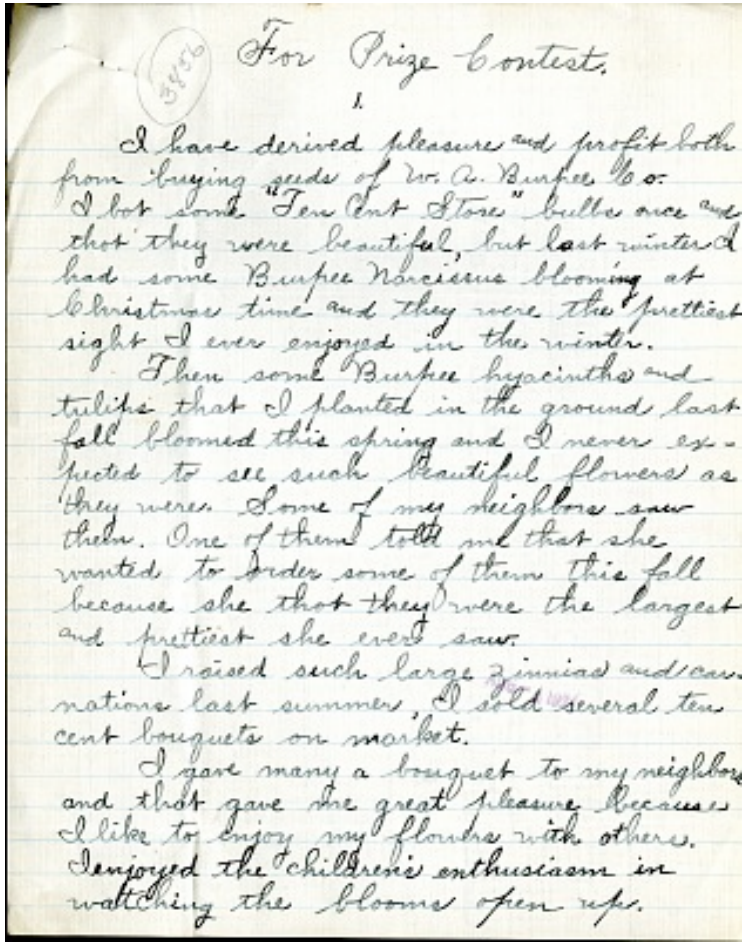

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives of American Gardens as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives of American Gardens website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives of American Gardens or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives of American Gardens. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

[[circled]] 3856 [[/circled]]
[[stamped]] AUG-4 1924 [[/circled]]

For Prize Contest.
1.
I have derived pleasure and profit both from buying seeds of Mr. A. Burpee Co. I bot some "Ten Cent Store" bulbs once and thot they were beautiful, but last winter I had some Burpee Narcissus blooming at Christmas time and they were the prettiest sight I ever enjoyed in the winter.
Then some Burpee hyacinths and tulips that I planted in the ground last fall bloomed this spring and I never expected to see such beautiful flowers as they were. Some of my neighbors saw them. One of them told me that she wanted to order some of them this fall because she thot they were the largest and prettiest she ever saw.
I raised such large zinnias and carnations last summer, I sold several ten cent bouquets on market.
I gave many a bouquet to my neighbors and that gave me great pleasure because I like to enjoy my flowers with others. I enjoyed the children's enthusiasm in watching the blooms open up.

Burpee Seed Contest, 1924 - Box 271, Folder 2
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Approved by Smithsonian Staff
Extracted Mar-28-2024 07:24:29

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities.Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!
The Transcription Center: https://transcription.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter
On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian
Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian
On Twitter: @smithsonian