Fri Jan 5th.

Anna got me up early. Very cold and hard. I went in cars to station a foolish economy probably. Got 8 train and pretty good trip reading over and writing Miss Erskine's interview. Quite a work to do and could not finish. Nuisance.

Class not very large but pretty interesting.

Saw Trask and found out dates for Jury at last. and then came dear H McCarter. Looking older and white but oh how nice.

He is a jewel and an uplifter. H Thouron met too and a nervous moment. How sad that there should be no pleasure in seeing him when he is such a dear and valued friend. We went to a hectic place to lunch but most fascinating by way of a florists.

I had to let him order and pay though it went against the grain.

He enjoyed it so. We had a WONDERFUL time talked so fast and so long and so happily. Had so much to tell. It was over too soon.

A Horrible cold day and we ran between the acts. I to N Y. in four train. and home in cars. Awfully cold. SO nice to get here and get into comfortable things and read mail etc.

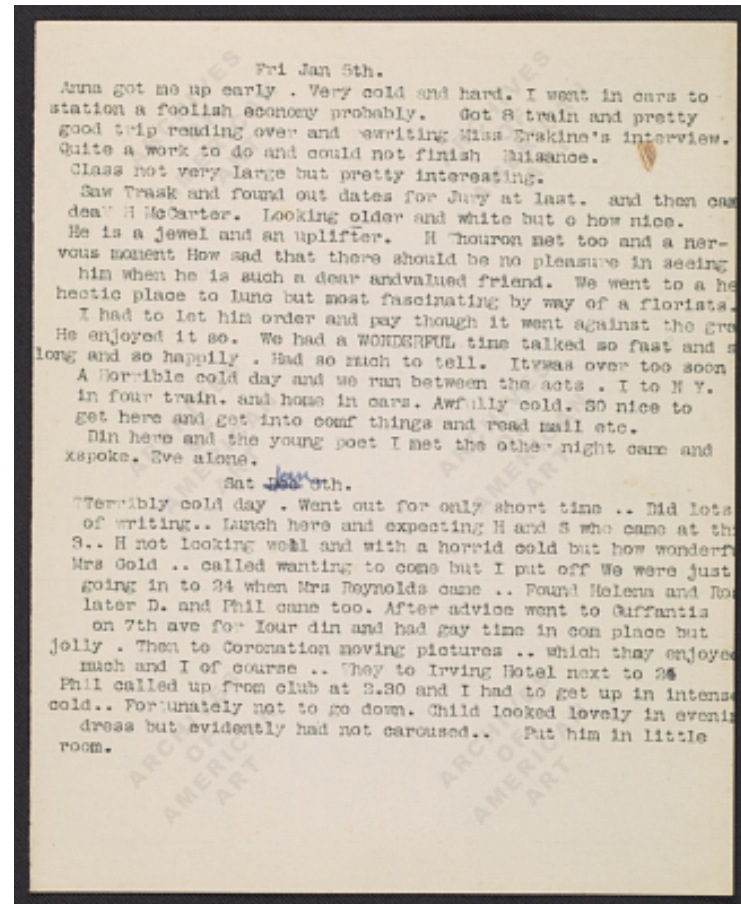

Din here and the young poet I met the other night came and xspoke. Eve alone.

Sat ~~Dec~~ <sup>Jan</sup> 6th.

Terribly cold day. Went out for only short time. Did lots of writing.

Lunch here and expecting H and S who came at 3. H not looking well and with a horrid cold but how wonderful! Mrs Gold called wanting to come but I put off. We were just going to 24 when Mrs Reynolds came. Found Helena and Ro later D. and Phil came too. After advice went to Guffanti on 7th ave for our din and had gay time in com place but jolly. Then to Coronation moving pictures. which they enjoyed much and I of course. They to Irving Hotel next to 24.

Phil called up from club at 2.30 and I had to get up in intense cold. Fortunately not to go down. Child looked lovely in evening dress but evidently had not caroused. Put him in little room.
