

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

Joseph Lindon Smith diary 1

Extracted on Jul-14-2025 09:23:38

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives of American Art as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives of American Art website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives of American Art or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives of American Art. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

[[pre-printed]] 29 [[/pre-printed]]

MONDAY. JAN 2.

Clouds sunshine and very hot to-day

Work went on at Karnak this morning. and a small head in sunlight. in the interior walls of the marble sanctuary was finished

A water color was begun in the afternoon in Luxor temple. a figure of Rameses.

Corinna and Joe went ~~to~~ and ~~to~~ to make a call on the Mond's this afternoon, and found them both aboard their boat.

Dowé received a telegram today from Amam. [his brother at Philoe] saying the little boat we sent for had been sent. and we shall begin to look for her on some big felouka. tomorrow or the day after.

TUESDAY JAN 3

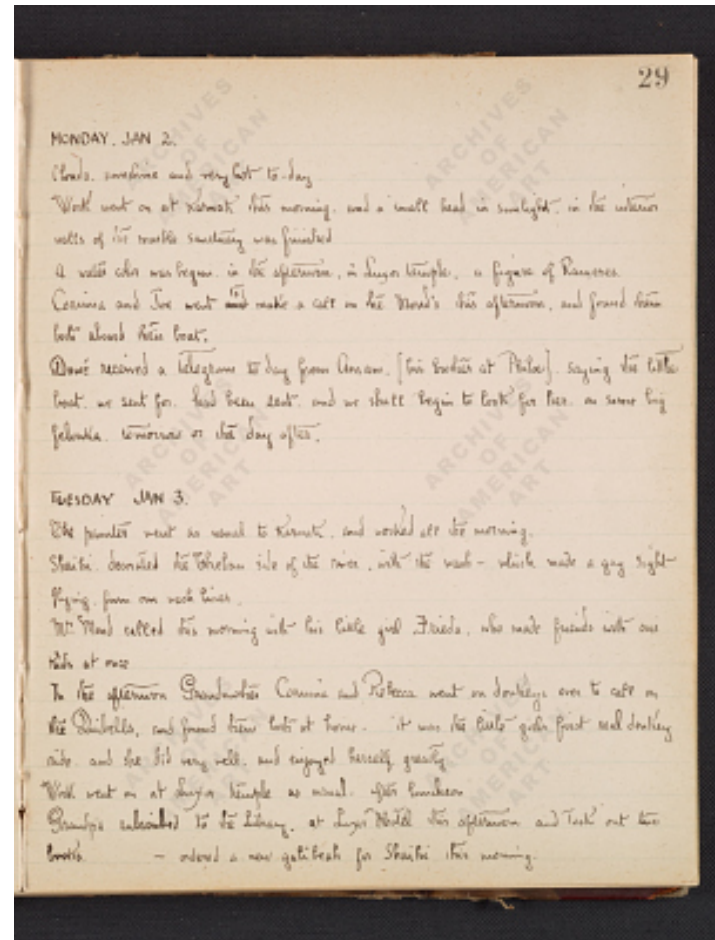

The painter went as usual to Karnak and worked all the morning.

Shaihi decorated the Theban side of the river. with the wash - which made a gay sight flying from our wash lines.

Mr. Mond called this morning with his little girl Frieda. who made friends with our kids at once

In the afternoon Grandmother Corrina and Rebecca went on donkeys over to call on the Quibells. and found them both at home. it was the little girls first real donkey ride and she did very well. and enjoyed herself greatly.

Work went on at Luxor temple as usual. after luncheon Grandpa subscribed to the library. at Luxor Hotel this afternoon and took out two books - ordered a new galibeah for Shaihi this morning.

Joseph Lindon Smith diary 1

Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers

Approved by Smithsonian Staff

Extracted Jul-14-2025 09:23:38

Smithsonian Institution

Archives of American Art

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian