

Smithsonian Institution

Archives Center - NMAH

Leo Baekeland Diary Volume 23, 1917

Extracted on Dec-09-2022 02:02:44

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives Center - NMAH as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives Center - NMAH website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives Center - NMAH or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives Center - NMAH. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

114

to us.

Oct 28, 1917 (Sunday) 1917 Drove to Aviation Camp where commanding officer Col. Bomford had invited Hewitt and myself. Dr. Dean of Bureau of Mines along. Everywhere challenged by sentries. then drove to headquarters with sentry aboard after had shown my identification card of Naval Consulting Board. Camp seems better kept than at Mineola. Less crowded and looks more cheerful. Same kind of ~~build~~ wooden white buildings and ditto barracks. Went to see hangars and repair shops. ~~on~~ Same trouble here as everywhere only a few airplanes for teaching flying altogether too few so that insufficient opportunity for ~~practice~~

~~exists.~~

115

practice exists.

Dinner at Kettering's house, his father and mother there, also Col and Mrs. Deeds and Mr. Talbot and his son. Both the latter are the heads of Dayton Wright Co and are experienced engineers and contractors who make the impression that they know how to manage such a big business. Col. Deeds tells me that pretty soon the daily payroll of this plant will average $300,000!

After dinner we ~~went to~~ drove to nearby Aviation Field where we spent afternoon. A bright beautiful day but rather cold. Some Hall Scott motored planes fly. Some american? and french officers there. Kettering tells us they are going to try the first large 12 cyl. Liberty Motor which we saw yesterday. In the mean-

Leo Baekeland Diary Volume 23, 1917
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Dec-09-2022 02:02:44

Smithsonian Institution

Archives Center - NMAH

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian