caught endless amounts of Grunts as fast as we could put bait on. - ground fishes Excellent meal, returned before sunset to anchorage before Club and had a fish - stew for supper just as excellent. Albert out to night to secure ticket for Thursday or or Friday. Wrote a letter to George and Cornelia. Placid water at night. Concert near by, under the Coco-nut palms. Since we have the new brush on the magneto and are more careful about not to use excess of oil our engine runs much better. Got in another 30 gallons of gasolene to day. This ought to supply us for the remaining

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
