Told him flatly do not care for European situation except desiring that it should be in good hands but do not want to be bothered at present.

Drove Pupin and Spaque home from Club. Rain showers. Lewis was all day on boat adjusting engine with Warner. (See letter to La Valette.)

Oct 16. Here all day. tired and nervous.

Oct 17. Here all day. Feel old ill and tired. ~~and~~

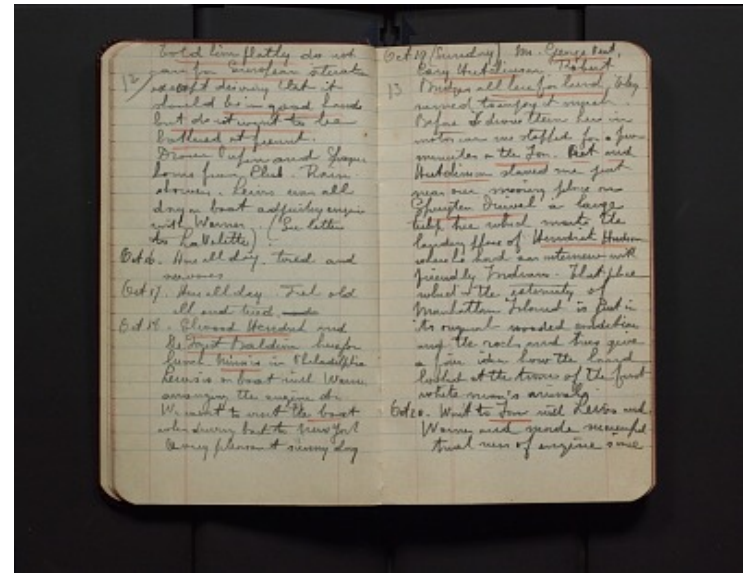

Oct 18. Elwood Hendrick and De Forest Baldwin here for lunch. Nina is in Philadelphia Lewis is on boat with Warner arranging the engine etc. We went to visit the boat when driving back to New York A very pleasant sunny day

Oct 19 (Sunday) Mr. George Peet, Cary Hutchinson, Robert Bridges all here for lunch. They seemed to enjoy it much. Before I drove them here in motorcar we stopped for a few minutes on the Ion. Peet and Hutchinson showed me just near our mooring place on Spuyten Duivil a large tulip tree which marks the landing place of Hendrick Hudson where he had an interview with friendly Indians. That place which is the extremity of Manhattan Island is just in its original wooded condition and the rocks and trees give a fair idea of how the land looked at the time of the first white man's arrival.

Oct 20. Went to Ion with Lewis and Warner and made successful trial run of engine since

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
