to Yonkers.

Evening the Argentine Chemical Society gave me a ~~supper~~ dinner at the "Sportsman" restaurant then meeting at their building where all similar societies meet. An enthusiastic and attentive audience. About 40-50 in all. ~~See~~ all eager to get in touch with U.S. books, literature etc. See article in "La Nacion" next day which gave very good short account of my lecture where I outlined the development of Chemistry and the American Chemical Society during these late years. A very pleasant evening. ~~The~~ Guillelmilla?

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
