

Smithsonian Institution

Archives Center - NMAH

Leo Baekeland Diary Volume 38, 1924-1925

Extracted on Apr-23-2024 04:01:59

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives Center - NMAH as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives Center - NMAH website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives Center - NMAH or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives Center - NMAH. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

76

Advertising Club who delivered an excellent address. witty and philosophical and a cure for calamity howlers and pessimists. Then I jumped in midnight train which brought me to Cincinnati next morning about 7:00 AM

Nov 7. Dr. Springer and Dr. Bosart were at the station with a motor car and drove us to Gibson Hotel. Excellent hotel. Good rooms and good service. Restful morning

Afternoon Springer came to talk and took supper with me then drove me to University. My address was better than on preceding occasions. Was very well received.

[end page]

[start page]

77

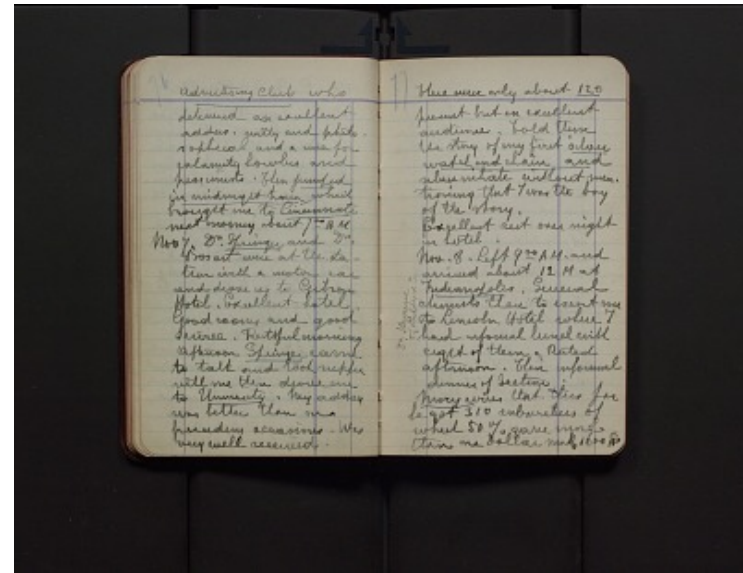

There were only about 120 present but an excellent audience. Told them the story of my first silver watch and chain and silver nitrate without mentioning that I was the boy of the story.

Excellent rest over night in hotel.

Nov. 8. Left 9:00 A.M. and arrived about 12 M at Indianapolis. Several chemists there to escort me to Lincoln Hotel where I had informal lunch with eight of them.

[left margin] Dr. Krause of Lilly & Co [left margin] Rested afternoon. Then informal dinner of Section.

Mory wires that thus far he got 310 subscribers of which 50% gave more than one Dollar making 1600$

Leo Baekeland Diary Volume 38, 1924-1925
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Apr-23-2024 04:01:59

Smithsonian Institution

Archives Center - NMAH

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian