

Smithsonian Institution

Archives Center - NMAH

Leo Baekeland Diary Volume 40, 1925

Extracted on Apr-19-2024 01:07:04

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives Center - NMAH as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives Center - NMAH website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives Center - NMAH or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives Center - NMAH. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

148

hats, to expensive Jewelry or family heirlooms. All this is going on briskly and no other place seems well and steadily patronized. Place is in charge of a stoutish young Dutchman who speaks no English and whose old Huguenot name is Chevalier, originating in the Walloon provinces. He says Government charges 6% interest per month (72% per year), thinks it high but says Chinese pawnshops charged much higher and dealt less fairly until Government Pawn shops were organized. Pawnery about this New - Year time very heavy. Hundreds of thousands guilders spent on fireworks most of the money obtained by pawning showed me a silver tea-service offered by the Dutch Government

end page
start page
149

to one of the Sultans, and which one of his heirs had ~~given~~ given in pawn. Many American Gold coins used for ornaments as brooches etc. pawned also British and Turkish gold. Saw rows of Singer - machines and bicycles, also some phonographs. Walked thru market then mixed school for boys and ditto for girls. Mixtures of tow heads and black Malay some almost white tow-hair and very dark eyes.

Considerable since mixture. On the Aloon-Aloon, or public place usual white Mosque and houses of Resident all white and clean.

Drove to Tjipanans where there are hot springs and a limpid open air hot swimming tank. The man in charge commands respect because he has been to Mecca

Leo Baekeland Diary Volume 40, 1925
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Apr-19-2024 01:07:04

Smithsonian Institution

Archives Center - NMAH

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian