NCNW Begins City-Wide Project For Citizenship Education [[written after title, S.F. INDEPENDENT Aug 30, 1956

By JEAN WELCHER

Because the struggle for equal rights and full citizenship are meaningless unless all persons assume the full responsibilities of such citizenship, the National Council of Negro Women has embarked on a city-wide educational project to work towards this ideal.

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
