CARD OF APPRECIATION

The Publishers of this guide wish to publically thank the following people and newspapers who have contributed and worked to bring this Travel Guide before the public and up to date, so that we as a race might have something authentic to travel by and to make traveling better for the Negro.

Mr. James (Billboard) Jackson - Special Rept. of the Standard Oil.
Mr. Chas. A. R. McDowell - of The United States Travel Bureau.
Mr. John D. Long - of New York City, N.Y.
Mr. Elmer Jackson - of Kansas City, Mo.
Mrs. Ella Glenn - of Springfield, Ohio.
The Louisville Leader - of Louisville, Ky.
The Cleveland Call & Post - of Cleveland, Ohio.
The Western Ideal - Pueblo, Colo.
The Waco Messenger - Waco, Texas.

We hope that you in reading this will tell others about this guide so that they will know of its usefulness.

We have given you a selection of listings that you might chose from, under no circumstances do these listings imply that the place is recommended.

EXPLANATION

No travel guide is complete with the multitude of business places that are unheard of. The principal value is its completeness for which reason we are endeavoring to make this guide actually the most complete possible.

The business classifications listed have been arranged under the different cities and town, so that one won't have any trouble finding what they want.

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
