Dr. Waldo L. Schmitt
U. S. National Museum
Washington, D.C.

My dear Dr. Schmitt

In the absence of President Merriam I am glad to acknowledge the receipt of your notification of yesterday to the effect that you will be able to spend the month of June at Tortugas. A copy of this note will be sent to Dr. Longley, and I assume that you will wish to make definite arrangements for your trip with him.

Sincerely yours

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
