

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

Pamphlet: Jim-Crow in Uniform

Extracted on Mar-28-2024 11:18:51

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the National Museum of African American History and Culture as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the National Museum of African American History and Culture website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact National Museum of African American History and Culture or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the National Museum of African American History and Culture. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

throughout the world, the Soviet Union stands as a beacon of light, hope, truth!

While the majority of people in America today are not for socialism, they are willing to work in common with those who similarly desire such things as jobs, security, democracy and peace. That is why we Young Communists stand together with the majority of American youth—Negro and white, who desire above all PEACE, so that they can pursue the American dream of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

Negro America remembers the false promises of the last war. They are saying The Yanks Are Not Coming.

The dream we mentioned earlier, can become a reality in the course of the struggle for these things, we will learn that these can only be achieved and kept in a more permanent society—Socialism.

We support no dreams of war abroad. We go to the wars at home. For jobs and civil liberties. For democracy and freedom!

Jesse Clipper, Negro hero, died believing he was his share to make the world safe for democracy. If Jesse Clipper were alive today, he would again fight for democracy. He would do it, however, not by following the loans of Wall Street to another Flanders Field, but by fighting for jobs, for relief, better housing, better health conditions—security for the people. We must make the world safe for democracy by making democracy safe for America. This is Jesse Clipper's dream now. We, the living, take our stand today on the side of Life and Peace!

---

Published by
NEW AGE PUBLISHERS
P.O. Box 28 Sta. D
New York, N.Y.
July, 1940
[[publisher's stamp]] 209

throughout the world, the Soviet Union stands as a beacon of light, hope, truth!

While the majority of people in America today are not for socialism, they are willing to work in common with those who similarly desire such things as jobs, security, democracy and peace. That is why we Young Communists stand together with the majority of American youth—Negro and white, who desire above all PEACE, so that they can pursue the American dream of "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

Negro America remembers the false promises of the last war. They are saying The Yanks Are Not Coming.

The dream we mentioned earlier, can become a reality. In the course of the struggle for these things, we will learn that these can only be achieved and kept in a more permanent society—Socialism.

We support no dreams of war abroad. We go to the wars at home. For jobs and civil liberties. For democracy and freedom!

Jesse Clipper, Negro hero, died believing he was doing his share to make the world safe for democracy. If Jesse Clipper were alive today, he would again fight for democracy. He would do it, however, not by following the loans of Wall Street to another Flanders Field, but by fighting for jobs, for relief, better housing, better health conditions—security for the people. We must make the world safe for democracy by making democracy safe for America. This is Jesse Clipper's dream now. We, the living, take our stand today on the side of Life and Peace!

---

Published by
NEW AGE PUBLISHERS
P. O. Box 28, Sta. D
New York, N. Y.
July, 1940

Pamphlet: Jim-Crow in Uniform
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Mar-28-2024 11:18:51

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of African American History and Culture

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian