

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of the American Indian Archives Center

Thomas Henry Tibbles papers - Bright Eyes, Susette La Flesche: Speeches, 1880

Extracted on Apr-18-2024 05:37:14

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the National Museum of the American Indian Archives Center as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the National Museum of the American Indian Archives Center website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact National Museum of the American Indian Archives Center or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the National Museum of the American Indian Archives Center. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

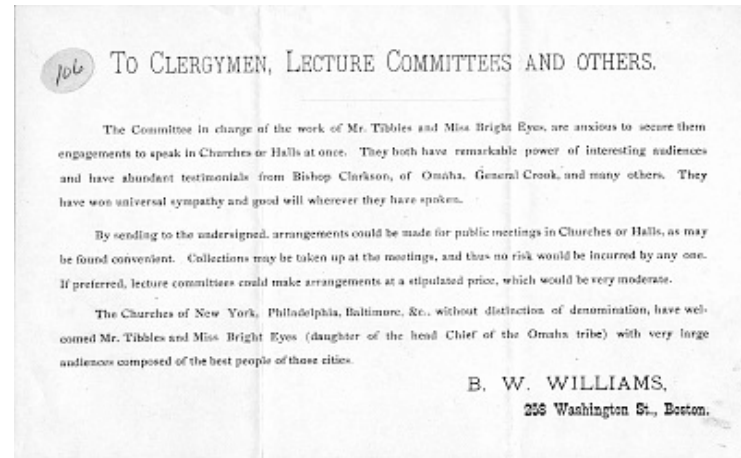

106 TO CLERGYMEN, LECTURE COMMITTEES AND OTHERS.

The Committee in charge of the work of Mr. Tibbles and Miss Bright Eyes, are anxious to secure them engagements to speak in Churches or Halls at once. They both have remarkable power of interesting audiences and have abundant testimonials from Bishop Clarkson, of Omaha, General Crook, and many others. They have won universal sympathy and good will wherever they have spoken.

By sending to the undersigned, arrangements could be made for public meetings in Churches or Halls, as may be found convenient. Collections may be taken up at the meetings, and thus no risk would be incurred by any one. If preferred, lecture committees could make arrangements at a stipulated price, which would be very moderate.

The Churches of New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, &c., without distinction of denomination, have welcomed Mr. Tibbles and Miss Bright Eyes (daughter of the head Chief of the Omaha tribe) with very large audiences composed of the best people of those cities.

B. W. WILLIAMS
258 Washington St., Boston.

Thomas Henry Tibbles papers - Bright Eyes, Susette La Flesche: Speeches, 1880
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Apr-18-2024 05:37:14

Smithsonian Institution

National Museum of the American Indian Archives Center

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!

The Transcription Center: <https://transcription.si.edu>

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter>

On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian

Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu

On Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian>

On Twitter: @smithsonian