Among the many and touching god-sends received on board ship and before, there was a letter from Prof. Rice and such as one as only he can write. In it he said "then if you see a sunrise over Pico, you will think ocean travel a real boon." We arrived too late for the sunrise, but the sunset! Well, it was of the kind no words can describe - like colors so delicate and sounds so sweet that neither can be distinguished from the other. like touches of friendship too subtle [sic] for analysis.
