^[[LETTER #10]]

Paris, November 16th/94

Dear Mr. Hecker,

I arrived in Paris on Saturday last the 10th inst and the following afternoon Dewing came -- Well, its been one continued whirl ever since. ~~So~~ This morning we seperated for the day so as to give each one of us a chance to make some personal calls and to also attend to correspondence. Surely my own is sadly behind. I had no letters forwarded from Paris, consequently upon arrival here, I found from you #2, 3, 4 & 5 and this afternoon, #6 came.

[[the following is overwritten by notation "Omit"]]

I have enjoyed them all -- Home news is always the best news -- And you are very kind to write
