Dear Mr. Hecker
The day before leaving Calcutta I received your letter of Feby. 16th/ and was delighted to learn that you had secured an order for 1500 Box cars from the N.Y. C & H. R.R.d. It seems like old times to read of such a contract, but when gotten under existing business conditions it's not only of great importance to our Co. but to our men also. You must have enjoyed overcoming the competition of
