Through exchange or subscription we now receive 140 different serials.

During the year we have had bound 148 volumes at a cost of $395.25.

PUBLICATIONS

In July 1948 we distributed Indian Notes and Monographs, vol. XI, no. 3, "A Collection of Specimens from the Teton Sioux," by Frances Densmore. Additionally, we issued a new card in our Post Card series and hope to produce four more through the current year. An exhaustive Index to the seven volumes of Indian Notes is ready for the printer and should be ready for distribution in the early Autumn of 1949.

The sale of publications amounted to $587.60 and of the post cards, to $131.15. The mailing folder mentioned in last year's report continues to be popular with visitors.
