[[underlined]] TO THE MEMBERS OF THE FIFTH AVENUE
ASSOCIATION, INC.
Subject: Request to display flags September 6th and September 16th [[/underlined]]

Next Wednesday, September 6th, will be the anniversary of the birthday of Lafayette, as well as the anniversary of the Battle of the Marne. The Lafayette Day National Committee is urging the general observance of this day. We have co-operated on this occasion in the past, and we are again urging our members to join in the celebration, by displaying the American and French flags side by side, or at least by flying the American flag, on this day.

[[circled]] We have a further request to make of you, and that is to display the American flag on Saturday, September 16th, on which day New York City will observe Constitution Day. The Sons of the American Revolution are urging a nation-wide observance of this day, and have expressed the hope that our Association will co-operate as fully this year as it did last year. [[/circled]]

Very truly yours

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
