Smithsonian Institution
Archives of American Art

Jacques Seligmann & Co. Records, New York Office Correspondence: Mi-Mu, 1913-1922

Extracted on Mar-28-2024 11:00:38

The Smithsonian Institution thanks all digital volunteers that transcribed and reviewed this material. Your work enriches Smithsonian collections, making them available to anyone with an interest in using them.

The Smithsonian Institution (the "Smithsonian") provides the content on this website (transcription.si.edu), other Smithsonian websites, and third-party sites on which it maintains a presence ("SI Websites") in support of its mission for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge." The Smithsonian invites visitors to use its online content for personal, educational and other non-commercial purposes. By using this website, you accept and agree to abide by the following terms.

- If sharing the material in personal and educational contexts, please cite the Archives of American Art as source of the content and the project title as provided at the top of the document. Include the accession number or collection name; when possible, link to the Archives of American Art website.
- If you wish to use this material in a for-profit publication, exhibition, or online project, please contact Archives of American Art or transcribe@si.edu

For more information on this project and related material, contact the Archives of American Art. See this project and other collections in the Smithsonian Transcription Center.

^[[checkmark]]

JS

February 28th 1920

Mr. Stanley Mortimer, Jr.
Woodland,
Tuxedo Park ^[[N.Y.]]

Dear Mr. Mortimer,-

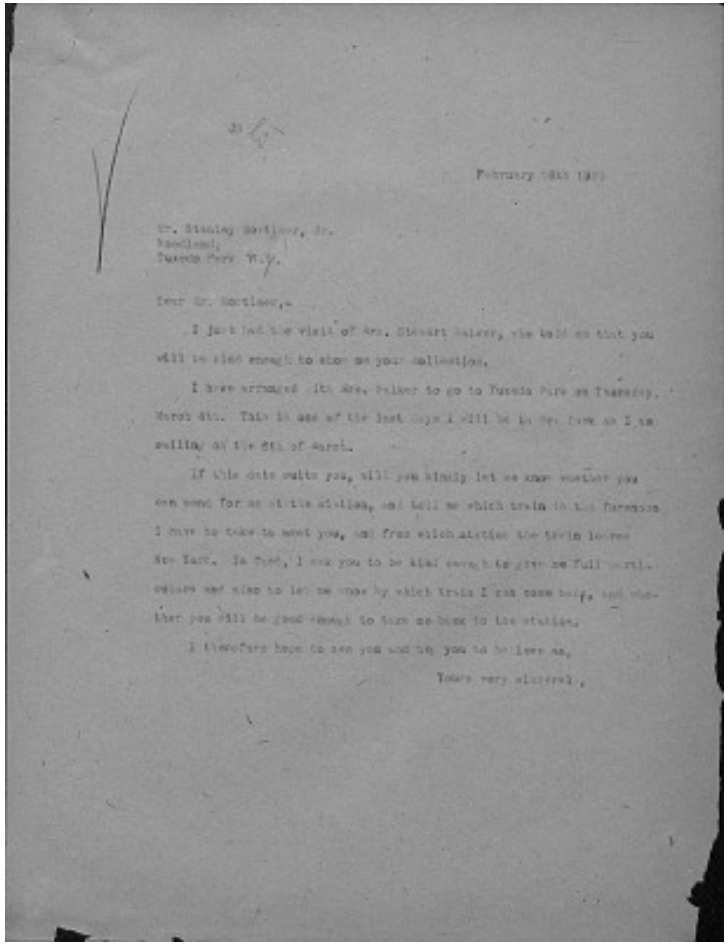

I just had the visit of Mrs. Stewart Walker, who told me that you will be kind enough to show me your collection.

I have arranged with Mrs. Walker to go to Tuxedo Park on Thursday, March 4th. This is one of the last days I will be in New York as I am sailing on the 6th of March.

If this date suits you, will you kindly let me know whether you can send for me at the station, and tell me which train in the forenoon I have to take to meet you, and from which station the train leaves New York. In fact, I ask you to be kind enough to give me full particulars and also to let me know by which train I can come back, and whether you will be good enough to take me back to the station.

I therefore hope to see you and beg you to believe me,

Yours very sincerely,

Jacques Seligmann & Co. Records, New York Office Correspondence: Mi-Mu, 1913-1922
Transcribed and Reviewed by Digital Volunteers
Extracted Mar-28-2024 11:00:38

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities.Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.

Join us!
The Transcription Center: https://transcription.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/SmithsonianTranscriptionCenter
On Twitter: @TranscribeSI

Connect with the Smithsonian
Smithsonian Institution: www.si.edu
On Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/Smithsonian
On Twitter: @smithsonian